2016 Third Annual Finger Lakes Permaculture Tour

Site Name	Schedule	Contact	Address	Description	Notes
Morning ONLY Sites 9 - 12pm
Shelterbelt Farm (Brooktondale, NY)	1-hr tours at 9am and 11am	Erica Frenay, efrenay22@gmail.com, 607-539-6512	200 Creamery Road, Brooktondale, NY 14817	Orchard, cropping and grazing ecosystem, beehives, sheep, and chickens, swales, green living roof, bioshelter under construction, graywater system, and diverse fruit/nut species (serviceberry, mulberry, elderberry, hazelnut, persimmon, chestnut, currant, etc)	No dogs please. Parking is limited; please park along the edge of our driveway. Cell phone service is very spotty in all of Brooktondale. Children are welcome!
Twisted Tree Farm (Spencer, NY)	one tour from 10:30-12:30	Akiva Silver, ttfarm279@gmail.com, 607-589-7937	279 Washburn Road, Spencer, NY 14883	Diverse small farm on 20 acres of hillside. Bare root and potted nursery with thousands of fruit trees, nut trees, berry bushes, and perennials. Young orchards of chestnut, mulberry, hazel, persimmon. Swales, ponds, and gardens.	n/a
Auburn Permaculture Park (Auburn, NY)	volunteer work from 9-10, tours from 10-12	Peter Cramer, auburnpermaculture@gmail.com, 315-258-3771	53 Garrow St, Auburn, NY 13021	Auburn Permaculture Park is an edible forest garden and educational gathering space located in Auburn, New York. Founded in 2015, Auburn Permaculture Park is a multi-generational, educational gathering space that inspires people to celebrate community and build a relationship with nature through exploration and play. The park provides a welcoming and accessible oasis of abundance and diversity, a serene place to unwind and reconnect, and a place for personal and perennial cultivation and growth. The low-cost, low-maintenance park serves as a symbol of community-empowerment and as a reproducible model for regenerating urban lands with edible forest ecosystems.	n/a
Rahma Forest Garden (Syracuse, NY)	volunteer work 10-11, tour 11-12	Frank Cetera, info@alchemicalnursery.org, 315-308-1372	3100 South Salina St, Syracuse, New York 13202	Using Perennial Permaculture Landscaping to Bring the Free Health Clinic's Mission Outside Its Doors: Rahma Edible Forest Snack Garden is a tree and community based permaculture place growing to enrich its space ecologically and socially since its initiation.	n/a
Afternoon ONLY Sites
Bitternut Homestead (Syracuse NY)	Drop in any time, 1-4pm	Frank Cetera, frcetera@alchemicalnursery.org, 315-308-1372	717 Otisco St, Syracuse, NY 13204 (Corner of Belmont St)	The Bitternut Homestead (named after the Iroquois word Otisco, or Us-te-ke, "bitter-nut-hickory", a 100-year old renovated Victorian purchased in 2010 for $1 from Home Headquarters (HHQ), a local quasi-governmental/non-profit housing agency. The house had been vacant for 3-4 years at the time of purchase, and required new plumbing, electric, heating, hot water, structural repairs from water and animal damage, and major interior and exterior finish work.	Street Parking only
Wellspring Forest Farm (Mecklenburg, NY)	Tours 1-2pm, 3-4pm	Steve & Elizabeth Gabriel, farmers@wellspringforestfarm.com, 607-342-2825	6164 Deer Run Ln, Trumansburg NY 14886	10-acre permaculture and agroforestry inspired farm and homestead producing shiitake, oyster, stropharia mushrooms, maple syrup, duck eggs, pastured lamb, and establishing elderberry & paw paw plantings. Off-grid solar, rainwater catchment, yurt, cob oven.	park where designated. NO dogs.
Good Life Farm & Finger Lakes Cider House (Interlaken, NY)	4:30-6:30pm	Melissa Madden & Garrett Miller, melissa@thegoodlifefarm.org, 607-352-3313	Hickok Rd, Interlaken NY	Good Life Farm and the Finger Lakes Cider House is a 69-acre farm growing Certified Organic fruit, vegetables, and pastured poultry. Our young farm pairs perennial vegetable production with organic orchard management, forage for beef, poultry and draft horses, season extension for vegetables and low-energy input systems.	n/a
ALL DAY Sites 9AM-4PM

2016 Third Annual Finger Lakes Permaculture Tour

Edible Acres (Trumansburg, NY)	tour from 10-11:30pm, tour from 2:30-4pm	Sean Dembrosky, sean@edibleacres.com, 607-342-4953	9408 Congress Street Extension, Trumansburg NY 14886	Edible Acres is a permaculture nursery and food forest homestead 7 years in the making. There will be inoculated shiitake mushroom logs and potted perennial/edible/medicinal plants available for purchase	park on the road
Cayuta Sun Farm (Catharine, NY)	Ongoing tours from 9-12, BBQ Lunch at 12, ongoing tours from 1-4pm	Michael Burns & Kelly Dietz, Michael@CayutaSunFarm.com, 607-227-0316. http://CayutaSunFarm.com	2962 South Swamp Rd, Alpine NY 14805	We produce log-grown shiitake mushrooms, silvopastured pork, and grass-pastured chickens. Camping available during the tour weekend. http://CayutaSunFarm.com	n/a
Hawk Meadow Farm (Hector, NY)	ongoing tours from 9-12, 1-4	Steve Sierigk, info@acorndesigns.org, 607-387-3424	5066 Mott Evans Road, Trumansburg, NY 14886	Hawk Meadow Farm, located in Schuyler County, NY near the southern edge of the Finger Lakes National Forest, specializes in log-grown woodland mushrooms such as shiitake and medicinal tinctures made from our mushrooms. Among our other products are maple syrup, and locust posts.	n/a
Graves' Home (Ithaca, NY)	ongoing tours	Lloyd Graves 607-330-1033 humanbeingboy@gmail.com	414 Elm St, Ithaca, NY 14850	We are in the 4th or 5th year of our design plan for a .25 acre, suburban property. With the help of permaculture principles, our design focuses on incorporating our varying needs for beauty, play and food production within the City of Ithaca.	n/a
South Meadow Urban Oasis (Ithaca, NY)	tour times: 10:00, 11:00, 1:00, 2:00	Alex Colket 6072803235 playwithyourmind@gmail.com	816 South Meadow Street, Ithaca, NY 14850	1/4 acre of edible landscaping in downtown Ithaca complete with ducks and wetland	n/a
Ithaca College Permaculture Garden (Ithaca, NY)	Open Garden from 9-12, Afternoon 1-4 visit on your own	Karryn Olson-Ramanujan https://icpermaculture.wordpress.com/ https://www.facebook.com/IthacaCollegePermacultureGarden/home	Williams Hall, Ithaca College	The IC permaculture garden is a small but highly productive space. In addition to yielding fruits, herbs and flowers, it serves as an accessible outdoor classroom demonstrating permaculture principles and functions as a gateway attracting visitors to other food-producing and sustainability-related projects on campus. In addition, it demonstrates an aesthetic and environmentally beneficial approach to landscaping that encourages interaction and discussion about our connections to food and the natural world.	n/a
Bread and Roses Collective (Syracuse, NY)	Open Garden from 9-12, 1-4	Kayo Green (315) 422-4924 house@breadandrosescollective.org	162 Cambridge Street, Syracuse NY 13210	An Urban housing collective strives for community building based on cooperation, ecological sustainability, and mutual aid. Organic vegetable & fruits gardens with rain garden, stone wall terraces (construction in progress), and rain barrels. Composting on site involves local cafe network.	n/a
Reception 6pm - 8pm
Finger Lakes Cider House (Interlaken, NY)		Melissa Madden & Garrett Miller, melissa@thegoodlifefarm.org, 607-352-3313	Hickok Rd, Interlaken NY	Please join us for a reception and celebration after the tours. Finger Lakes Cider House, Interlaken, NY -Music by local Folk-Jazz Fusionist Jen Cork -Permaculture Artifacts Raffle -Donations requested and raffle proceeds will support the Permaculture Tour Weekend. -Gourmet locally-sourced wood-fired pizzas from The Rusty Oven	